

EACR-OECI Joint Conference
MOLECULAR PATHOLOGY
APPROACH TO CANCER

Lisbon, Portugal
18 - 20 May 2020

www.eacr.org/conference/molecularpathology2020

This conference will be of interest to a diverse audience including pathologists, molecular pathologists and pathology residents, researchers in the field of molecular diagnostics and precision oncologists. The conference population will thus simulate the multidisciplinary teams that act in the real world to facilitate interdisciplinary research and the multidisciplinary teams caring for patients with cancer.

Topics

- Current views on molecular pathology
- Molecular pathology of colorectal cancer
- Molecular pathology of lung cancer
- Cancer models for biomarker discovery, from animal models to patient derived organoids
- New technologies in diagnostic onco-pathology.
